Christine Bascetta-Gath Promoted to Chief Lending Officer of Litchfield Bancorp

Thomas Villanova, President & CEO of Litchfield Bancorp is pleased to announce the promotion of Christine Bascetta-Gath to Chief Lending Officer for the bank, as of January 31, 2020.

Christine Bascetta-Gath began her banking career in 2010 and since then she has worked in multiple areas of commercial banking. Prior to Litchfield Bancorp, Christine was Vice President & Commercial/Wholesale Banker at United Bank. Christine was responsible for determining the lending needs and banking services for existing and potential customers. Prior to that, she was VP, Manager in Commercial Lending & Administration with Torrington Savings Bank. Christine began her employment with Litchfield Bancorp in late 2018 as Senior Vice President, Commercial Lending Officer. This promotion comes to Christine, as Bob Teittinen announces his retirement as of March 31, 2020.

“This is bittersweet and celebratory at the same time, however after 8 years of sharing his wit and wisdom, Bob Teittinen is retiring from Litchfield Bancorp. Bob has been influential to our bank, the Holding Company and to me personally.” Tom Villanova said, in regards to the retirement of Bob Teittinen. Tom continued to say, “With his retirement, I’m proud to congratulate Christine in her promotion to Chief Lending Officer. In her short time with the bank, Christine has proven herself worthy of this promotion and I am personally thankful to have someone of this caliber to replace Bob.”
