McCall Center for Behavioral Health announces Paul McLaughlin as member of its Board of Directors

The McCall Center for Behavioral Health has announced the election of Paul McLaughlin to its Board of Directors as of January 2017.

Paul McLaughlin is Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Litchfield Bancorp, the same community bank he started with 25 years ago and is an avid member of the community in Northwest Connecticut.

“I am thrilled that Paul has joined our Board of Directors. We are so grateful that he will be directing his boundless energy to furthering the mission of McCall,” said Maria Coutant Skinner, Executive Director of McCall Center for Behavioral Health. Maria continued to say, “His commitment to helping our neighbors find hope in their journey will no doubt have wonderful benefits to our agency, as well as the broader community.”

Paul currently serves as a co-chairman for the Northwest Connecticut Chamber of Commerce Leadership Program; Partners for Sustainable Healthy Communities Trustee; President of the Litchfield Area Business Association; Greenwoods Counseling Director and a member of the Torrington High School Governance Committee. In the past, Paul has also served as a President of the Board of Directors for the United Way of Northwest Connecticut; Held positions with the Oliver Wolcott Library as Board of Trustee, Annual Fund Chairman, Vice President and Treasurer; as well as a Rotary Member.

In accepting the offer to join the Board of Directors for the McCall Center for Behavioral Health, Paul stated, “I am both humbled and flattered to have been asked to join the board of such a tremendous organization. I am eagerly looking forward to working with my fellow board members at addressing so many difficult challenges. Also, having the opportunity to work with Executive Director Maria Skinner will be an honor.”
