Paul McLaughlin promoted to Executive Vice President of Litchfield Bancorp

Litchfield – Litchfield Bancorp is proud to announce the promotion of Paul McLaughlin to Executive Vice President as of January 2018.

Paul McLaughlin began his career with Litchfield Bancorp more than 25 years ago and is an avid member of the community in Northwest Connecticut.

“I am pleased to announce the promotion of Paul to EVP, approved by the Litchfield Bancorp Board last week,” President and Chief Executive Officer, Thomas J. Villanova said in announcing McLaughlin’s promotion. Mr. Villanova continued to say, “Paul is a leader in the community, a leader in our organization and a leader in the Connecticut Mutual Holding Company.”

Paul currently serves as a board member for the McCall Center for Behavioral Health; co-chairman for the Northwest Connecticut Chamber of Commerce Leadership Program; Partners for Sustainable Healthy Communities Trustee; President of the Litchfield Area Business Association; Greenwoods Counseling Director and a member of the Torrington High School Governance Committee. In the past, Paul has also served as a President of the Board of Directors for the United Way of Northwest Connecticut; Held positions with the Oliver Wolcott Library as Board of Trustee, Annual Fund Chairman, Vice President and Treasurer; as well as a Rotary Member.

In accepting his promotion, Paul stated, “I have had the honor and privilege of working for Litchfield Bancorp over the past 27 years. Time and time again they have supported me and allowed me so many opportunities. This promotion is truly humbling and is another great example of how Litchfield Bancorp supports its employees. I look forward to the years to come, working with this tremendous team!”
